Richard R. Rodriguez has experience with all phases of litigation and advises clients in the areas of Real Estate, including the purchase and sale of residential and commercial properties.

Prior to forming The Law Office of Richard R. Rodriguez, P.C., in 2005, Mr. Rodriguez was an Associate at the law firm of Nadel & Associates, P.C. where he handled all aspects of litigation in several areas, including real property, construction and commercial litigation.

Immediately prior to joining Nadel & Associates, P.C., Mr. Rodriguez was an Associate at Meyer, Suozzi, English & Klein, P.C., where he handled matters relating to labor and employment, and ERISA. He was also a law clerk and summer associate with that firm. During his time as a law student, Mr. Rodriguez was a legal intern with the New York City Corporation Counsel, where he performed settlement negotiations, conducted 50-H hearings, transcripts and notice requirements in the area of trip and fall cases.

Mr. Rodriguez received a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice from St. John's University in 1998 and a Juris Doctorate from Hofstra University School of Law in 2001. While at St. John's, Mr. Rodriguez was named to the Dean's List and was also Captain of the St. John's University Football Team. In law school, Mr. Rodriguez was the President of the Latin American Students Association and a member of the Entertainment Law Society.

He is admitted to the bar in New York State, and is also admitted to bars of the United States District Court in the Northern, Eastern and Southern Districts of New York.

Mr. Rodriguez is also a member of the New York State Bar Association.
